

What Is Eagle Express?

Operated by FREDericksburg Regional Transit, Eagle Express is a partnership between the University of Mary Washington (UMW) and FRED designed to serve the UMW community during the academic year. Eagle Express provides service between UMW, Eagle Village, downtown Fredericksburg, Central Park and Spotsylvania Towne Centre on Thursday and Friday evenings and all day Saturday and Sunday.

Who Can Ride and What Does It Cost?

UMW students, faculty and staff can ride the Eagle Express and all other FRED buses free upon showing a valid University ID. Employees of our other major Partners ride free as well. The general public is also welcome to ride Eagle Express; the standard FRED fare of $1.25 per boarding applies to all customers not employed by one of our major Partners. Effective July 1, 2016, FRED instituted a half-fare program during ALL hours of operation for seniors, Medicare recipients and persons with disabilities. Details are available on www.rideFRED.com.
